Players competing in any Pre Qualifier will be awarded the respective Round 1 (Last 128) losers prize money for losing in either the Last 128 round or the Pre-Qualifying round. No prize money will be awarded for winning the Pre-qualifying round. Players who finished outside of the top 64 in the 2016/2017 season but regain a tour place by any means will start on zero prize money. Players starting on zero prize money will be ranked in alphabetical order to determine a ranking.

At the end of the season players on equal prize money will be ranked according to the most prize money earned in the last season. Should this not determine positions, prize money in events working backwards from the World Championship 2017 will be considered. Finally, if still equal, frames won in losing final match would be used from events working backwards from the World Championship 2017.
